Public Burden Statement: An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB control number for this project is 0930-0270. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 2 minutes per client per year, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to SAMHSA Reports Clearance Officer, 1 Choke Cherry Road, Room 7-1044, Rockville, Maryland, 20857.

GROUP CRISIS COUNSELING OR PUBLIC EDUCATION (SELECT ONE)

Group Crisis Counseling refers to services that help group members understand their current situation and reactions to the disaster, review or discuss their options, provide emotional support or referral services, and/or provide skills to cope with their current situation and reactions. In group counseling, participants do most of the talking

*Public Education refers to services that provide general psycho-educational information to survivors on disaster services available and key concepts of disaster mental health. Common activities in this category include, but are not limited to, public speaking at community forums, in-service group meetings, and local government meetings. In public education, the crisis counselor does most of the talking.
